

MONTENEGRO BEARS BRUNT WHILE BALKANS MOBILIZE

Turkey Demands Apology for "Inolent" Notes and Gives Athens and Allied Capitals Twenty-four Hours in Which to Retract—Fukovich Again Takes Berani, Which Has Changed Hands Several Times.

BY PAUL LAMBETH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND BY WIRELESS FROM CHICAGO TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Balkan allies have crossed the Rubicon. The statement of M. Pashich, Prime Minister of Serbia, that Turkey will be given a chance at the eleventh hour, to make concessions and win peace, have now given place to blows.

At Belgrade, M. Pashich gave a statement to the correspondents which for an hour or two relieved the pressure on the continental bourses and reacted favorably on the London stock exchange. Then came the attack. The Prime Minister denied that he has any hopes of a peaceful settlement of the question involved. "But," he said, "that question is so grave that the honor of the Balkan kingdoms, the Porte must be given no excuse for pleading we make war gratuitously. War has been thrust upon us."

"My impression is that Turkey wants to go to extremes. Turkey's refusal of our just demands renders it more than improbable that diplomacy can hope to accomplish any results. She has appealed to the edge of the scimitar. We shall give her the sword. But first, Serbia will consider the situation with her allies and a few days must elapse before a decision is taken."

NO OPERA BOUFFE. The situation might be said to resemble an act of comic opera were it not for the cries of the wounded and the dying within the theater of war around Sarajevo and in the Balkan hills. The real truth of the matter is that Serbia, Bulgaria and Greece are preparing for time within which to complete their preparations for combined defensive action. M. Pashich, Montenegro is bearing the brunt of the struggle.

It is only a fortnight since mobilization was begun by the allies. In military circles it is not believed that Bulgaria can possibly accomplish the task of putting her army into the field for several days yet. Turkey's preparations are probably well advanced.

From Vienna today came a sensational dispatch saying that Austria-Hungary would throw an army into the Balkans to hold that coveted province against both Turkey and the Balkan states. Semi-official statements reflect this report. It is known that the move was actually under way when Emperor Franz Josef issued orders countermanding the movement of troops across the Hungarian frontier.

DISORDER IN CONCERT. The absolute disorder of the concert of Europe was evidenced today in a statement made by King Nicholas of Montenegro. The King apprised the powers two months ago of the desperate situation in which matters then stood. He urged immediate action to bring the Porte to a reasonable understanding, pointing out that his people were clamoring for war, goaded by the continued outrages committed on Christian subjects of the Ottoman empire. France was willing to act, but Russia and England held back for what reason has not yet been disclosed.

From Petrograd come news of further Montenegrin successes around Iskra and to the north where Gen. Yankovitch's army is operating. Belgrade, which has changed hands several times in the fighting, has been captured by the Montenegrins.

According to a Paris telegram, Bulgaria's declaration of war was published in Sofia this evening. The Bulgarian Minister in London denies official knowledge of the decisive step, but states that he believes war will be officially proclaimed by his government within the next twenty-four hours.

The British petroleum steamer Demagosa, which has just arrived at Demagosa, Roumania, reports that at 4 o'clock this morning she sighted three warships when twenty-three miles off the Bulgarian coast. The Serbian signalled the strangers but the letter did not respond. The captain of the Serbian says he is certain the warships are part of the Turkish fleet on their way to bombard Varna. They were steering in that direction and he recognized them as ships of the Turkish Black Sea squadron.

TURKEY DEMANDS ABJECT APOLOGY.

BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES. LONDON, Oct. 16.—The declaration of war by Bulgaria against Turkey was published in Sofia this evening, according to a news agency dispatch from Paris. This step was taken as the result of the withdrawal of the Turkish representative from Bulgaria.

The conclusion of peace between Turkey and Italy has caused a feeling of general relief, as it is believed to have removed a chance of complications arising out of Italy's possibility of being drawn into the Balkan war. The great European states are exerting every effort to localize the conflict. They have thus far remained firm in their determination not to allow any change in the territorial situation in the Balkans when the war is over. It is the same time they call upon Turkey to carry out the promised reforms in her European provinces in satisfactory manner.

The Turkish Charge d'Affaires at Sofia today asked the Bulgarian government for his passport. He expected to depart for Constantinople. A dispatch from Cetinje reports that the retirement of Gen. Martinovich with his Montenegrin troops from the Rila-Borana is a part of a planned movement against the Turkish town of Tarkosch.

TURKEY'S DEMAND APOLOGY. Turkey's full strength has been shown against her ancient enemies. Peace in the war with Italy has freed the Sultan's fleet, and united action with the Ottoman army, it will be pushed into active campaign against Greece and Slavs. Made confident through the ability to concentrate her forces against her

TURKISH SQUADRON GETTING UNDER STEAM

BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 16.—[By wireless telegram from Kustendje Roumania.] The conclusion of peace negotiations between Italy and Turkey was fully anticipated by the Ottoman government, although the news did not reach here until 4 o'clock this morning and is still unknown to the public.

In the meantime, the Ministry of Marine was taking active steps to prepare the Turkish fleet to take part in the campaign against the Balkan States. Three battleships and two cruisers which had been bottled up by the Italian squadron have now been stationed at the mouth of the Black Sea in order to escort an army of invasion to the Bulgarian coast.

This movement of Turkish forces will compel the Bulgarian military commanders to divert part of their army from the main attack on Turkey in Macedonia.

Notwithstanding the most elaborate precautions taken by the Turkish troops, Bulgarian hands have succeeded in destroying some important bridges between Itaship and Kotsk-hana, so that communication with Bulgaria is completely severed and news from the Montenegrin frontier is meager.

The Ottoman government has solved the problem of employment of Christian soldiers in the Turkish army by using them in the garrisons of Asia Minor and also partly in Constantinople.

SERBIA CALLS CONSENSUS HOME. MINISTER ARRANGES TO LEAVE. BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES. LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Serbian government has ordered its Minister at Constantinople to arrange for his immediate departure, says a dispatch received today by the Serbian legation. The Serbian consuls in Turkey also have been ordered to leave.

Turks to Take Offensive. PARIS, Oct. 16.—[By Cable and A. P.] The Turkish armies have been ordered to take the offensive attitude, according to a dispatch to the Temps.

THEFT BLAMED ON HYPNOTIST.

CHICAGO BOYS SAY THEY WERE UNDER BANEFUL SPELL.

Pair of Youngsters Tell Police They Stole Large Sum at the Behest of a Young Man Now Supposed to Be in California—Western Police on Lookout.

[By Federal Wireless Line to the Times.] CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 16.—[Special Dispatch.] Two little boys, whispering and terrified, told the police today of a $1000 theft they said an 18-year-old youth named Bruno Lepko had hypnotized them into committing. Elmer Williams, 11-years old, arrested for stealing $1000 of which was in currency and the rest in checks, started his weeping mother and relatives, who had crowded into the office of a Juvenile Court official, by saying: "I took the money to Bruno. I stayed away from Bruno. He made me take $1000 before, and I gave it to him. I took that from papa's strong box and he got it and went to California."

The boy's mother staggered from her chair. "Did you steal that?" she exclaimed. "It's all the money we have in the world," said the boy, "about a month ago, and Bruno has it in California."

STORY CONFIRMED. The official turned to the other boy, Harry Wagner, 18 years old: "What do you know about this?" he asked. "He helped take it," the boy said. "Bruno made me. I could not help myself."

With the money the boys made a tour of Haled street. They spent $10. On their way home two men who had been following them robbed them of the remaining money.

"Bruno told me my papa had $1000 in cash in the house, and if I would get it for him he would be nice to me," Elmer said. "He gave me a key to open the box. I went to get it, and he said: 'Now, see if you can get some more. If you do, you can come out to California where I am looking around and I found my mamma had some money. I took that and we went to the theaters and the shooting gallery. Two men saw us carrying it in the car, and when we got off they grabbed me and Harry and took the money away.'"

Efforts to locate Lepko were made at once. The police of California cities were notified.

feeling for many days has been carried out smoothly. Diaz returned to Vera Cruz and entered the city quietly early today. With a lieutenant and a small following he arrested the director of the arsenal and the commander of the city, but released them later on parole.

He then took over the government offices without opposition. All saloons, banks and business houses have closed their doors. Citizens of Vera Cruz are enthusiastically accepting the Diaz control. The Serbian consuls in Turkey also have been ordered to leave.

DIAS JUNTA FORMED BY EL PASO REBELS.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. EL PASO (Tex.) Oct. 16.—A Felix Diaz rebel junta has been organized here. It was generally admitted today among rebel leaders and refugees that the nephew of the former President would be most acceptable to the revolutionary element as a provisional President.

MADERO IS MAKING PEACE OVERTURES.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. EL PASO (Tex.) Oct. 16.—Overtures have been made from men prominent in Madero's government at Mexico City to representatives here of Francisco Orozco, Jr., leader of the rebel movement in the north. Also, it is learned from secret service sources, that an emissary is on his way to Paris to see Porfirio Diaz. President of Mexico, before the Madero revolution, and it was said today on highest authority that Felix Diaz, who has risen in arms against the Madero government, is one of five named as Presidential candidates to succeed Madero.

The new revolutionary party, said rebel leaders here, will be unique in Mexico, in that it will champion no man, leaving the selection to popular vote or to some committee.

MORE RANSOMS WANTED BY REBELS.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 16.—[Special Dispatch.] Unconfirmed reports that the ransoms demanded by the rebels for the release of John F. Cameron, a wealthy cattle dealer, and Arthur McCormick, superintendent of the Palomas ranch, who are held captives have been paid or will be paid, have reached the State Department.

It is reported that the $15,000 demanded for Cameron's release has been sent by relatives to the Clinco de Mayo mines, where he is held prisoner. This report was communicated to the State Department by consular agents. Another dispatch states that the Palomas Land and Cattle Company has sent $5000 to buy McCormick's release.

The War Department received a message to the effect that it was reported that both Gen. Tolles and Aubert had sent troops to the rescue of the two men.

Brigade has been reported in the vicinity of San Luis Potosi, according to a report to the State Department. Depredations have been committed by the band of rebels under Gen. Aguilar on the east coast. It is feared here that should Gen. Diaz spring to any great prominence that his revolution would be more far-reaching and more contagious than has been the Orozco movement in the north and the Zapata movement in the south.

His sacrifice may be fatal.

ACT OF HEROISM LIKELY TO COST BOY'S LIFE. Youth Suffers Relapsing Following Amputation to Permit of Skin Grafting Process—Girl Whose Life Is Saved by His Act of Unselfishness Is Rapidly Regaining Health.

[By Federal Wireless Line to the Times.] GARY (Ind.) Oct. 16.—[Special Dispatch.] While rough, the newspaper boy who gave his disabled leg for amputation, so that sufficient skin might be obtained to graft upon the burned body of Miss Ethel Smith, was reported yesterday to be in a serious condition.

The boy's sudden relapse came within an hour of the time Miss Smith was discharged from the hospital, convalescent and nearly well. The girl's last act for the hospital was to visit the room in which lay the boy whose sacrifice saved her life.

She knelt at the side of his bed and kissed him. She was crying as she left the ward. "Thank you, thank you," were the only words Miss Smith addressed to Willie.

One hundred and fifty square inches of skin were taken from the boy's amputated leg and placed upon the burned spots of the girl's body. But for his remarkable sacrifice, physicians declare Miss Smith would have lost her life.

Willie never until she was brought into the operating room and placed beside him a few moments before the grafting began.

NOT WEDDING, BUT FUNERAL.

Scientists, Returning from Philippines, Is Told in San Francisco of Drowning of Sweetheart. [By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Oct. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After crossing the Pacific with the expectation of soon wedding his fiancée, whom he had not seen in many months, Dr. Philip Newton, lecturer in the Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., learned on his arrival here yesterday, that his fiancée, Miss Annie Nixon of Columbia Beach, Md., had been drowned the afternoon of September 4.

Miss Nixon, daughter of Financial Clerk Nixon of the United States Senate, had been rowing with S. W. Wiseman, a Senate employee. Wiseman decided to dive from the boat and swim alongside.

He was seized with a cramp and the young woman jumped into the water to help him. She was dragged under the water and drowned. Her body was recovered and the funeral was held while Dr. Newton was hastening to the United States to meet his sweetheart. He had been in the Philippines for several months on a scientific mission for the Smithsonian Institution.

ROOSEVELT IS "NORMAL," DOCTOR'S BULLETIN SAYS.

Condition of the Candidate, Shot by a Maniac in Milwaukee, Is All that Could Be Expected by Dr. Murphy and His Corps of Assistants—First X-Ray Photo of Wound Betrayed Physicians.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—At 10 o'clock tonight Col. Roosevelt was visited by Dr. J. B. Murphy, head surgeon in charge of the case; Dr. Terrell and Dr. McLaughlin. The examination resulted in their announcement that the condition of the patient is normal at present and there is no indication of complications.

The following is the official report:

Temperature, 98.6; pulse, 84; respiration, 20; leucocytes, 10,000; polymorphonuclear neutrophils, 74; general condition good.

DR. J. B. MURPHY,
DR. A. D. BEVAN,
DR. S. L. TERRELL.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—After a day of anxious waiting, Col. Roosevelt's physicians tonight could say no more than that the patient was virtually unharmed. Indications, they said, favor recovery from the effects of the bullet which struck him down in Milwaukee Monday night.

The fact that a rib was fractured, they said, was not a serious matter. The bullet, they said, had passed through the chest and had not reached the lungs. The bullet, they said, had passed through the chest and had not reached the lungs.

A CARE-FREE DAY.
Col. Roosevelt spent a quiet and uneventful day today, seemingly free from all anxiety. He was seen by the physicians at 10 o'clock and was found to be in good condition.

Col. Roosevelt's condition is all that could be expected by Dr. Murphy and his corps of assistants. The first X-ray photo of the wound betrayed the physicians.

HAPPY, LAUGHING
CHILD SHORTLY
DON'T SCOLD THE LITTLE ONES
WHEN THEY ARE IRRITABLE.

If Croup, Feverish, Bilious and Sick,
Let "Syrup of Figs" Clean Its Little Waste-Clogged Bowels.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting normally it is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When croup, feverish, bilious, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, Sore Throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of the little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will have a happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of delicious figs, senna and aromatic oils, it cannot be harmful, besides their dear little mouths find its taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggists for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine and reliable. Refuse anything else offered.—[Adv.]

TRAINMEN IN SECRET SESSION.
ROCHESTER (N. Y.), Oct. 16.—The Eastern Association of the General Committee of the Railroad Conductors and Trainmen are in secret session here today. They are expected to meet and conductors are in attendance.

They represent eighty-five or more roads in the United States and Canada, east of Chicago and north of the line of the Chesapeake, Maryland and Ohio road. The meeting will last several days.

as to deliver a terrible broadside as compared with the seventy-two twelve-inch guns of the Connecticut and her twelve sister ships that cannot be used so effectively.

THE BALKAN SITUATION.
TEMPTATION FOR THE POWERS.
[New York Times, Oct. 16.] The nature of the demands made on Turkey despite all attempts to defer or modify them, with the determined rejection of these and of the note of the powers, creates a situation of very grave character. It is so recognized in the proposition of France that it shall be dealt with at once by a general conference before any new engagements have arisen; in other words, before any negotiations have made themselves felt among the powers.

THE LINE OF BATTLE.
OBSCURE MEN-OF-WAR.
[New York Sun, Oct. 16.] The case for two dreadnoughts every year until the Panama Canal opens would not have so much power as it has now. The battlehips of the Atlantic fleet were not obsolete, fit only for the reserve, or not formidable enough in broadside power to be ranked in the first line of battle.

THE BECKER TRIAL.
STORIES ARE APPALLING.
[Baltimore American, Oct. 16.] Let the outcome of the trial of Lieut. Becker, the man accused of plotting the murder of the gambler, Rosenthal, be what it may, the story of the gangsters who have thus far testified, is one of the most shocking records of premeditated crime that have ever been read in an American court. Even if the declaration should be discounted by other evidence or repudiated by reason of the character of the men, the fact remains that this recital is the story of the alleged willingness of men who had only one stake in life and that was graft, and plunder, to become party to the murder of one who had committed the offense of "squealing."

The stories of the gangsters are appalling in their implications as to the range and extent of the city peril from this source.

Best $25.00
Suits in Town

That heading is but an echo of what dozens of women tell us every day about our $25.00 Suits, and what everybody agrees upon is pretty sure to be right. Anyway, we've not seen the equal of these Suits for thirty or thirty-five dollars.

There are Plain Tailored models, Norfolk and Robespierre effects in almost any style, material or fashionable color you can suggest. We ask you to note particularly the tailoring and finishing, the fit and the general air of smart exclusiveness about them. That will settle the question of where to buy your autumn suit, quickly enough.

Plenty of other new styles, at $35.00, $40.00 and up.

French Velour Shapes $7.50
Actually Worth $12.50

We mean exactly what we say in regard to these imported, untrimmed Velour Shapes; when you see them you will agree with us. You need only to price them elsewhere to prove it. Of course we bought them away under market value.

They are the genuine French Velours so much in vogue now for both street and dress wear. Require little in the way of trimming to make of them the newest and most fashionable Hats on Broadway. Blues, greens, reds and black. For one day only—Thursday—$7.50 each. No phone orders.

Stamped Undermuslins
 Another lot of Gowns and Corset Covers, all stamped in pretty new designs for lovers of fancy work, came yesterday. The material is a soft, fine quality nainsook, the best we've ever had.
GOWNS, $1.00; CORSET COVERS, 35c.
Huck Towels 55c Doz.
Good 75c Value

This Towel is used extensively in apartment and rooming houses. A 14x22-inch Huck Towel, with colored borders and well hemmed ends that sell ordinarily for 75c a dozen. A hundred dozen today, at 55c each, or 55c a dozen.

Gadski And The Steinway

That Gadski is a superb Artist was abundantly proven at the Concert Tuesday evening. His seat in the immense Auditorium "Beautiful" was from the first to the last moment in entrancing ecstasy. No one should fail to hear this wonderful singer, who will appear again at the Auditorium in a Matinee performance this coming Saturday.

Of course, Gadski uses the world's best Piano. Steinway the Choice of Great Artists—

In this present day, as well as for many years, the Steinway is invariably the choice of the world's greatest Musicians and Singers. They find in this instrument the one satisfactory Piano—the instrument that always gives them greatest support. Edwin Schneider, a Pianist of the first rank, accompanied Madame Gadski.

GUM SHOES NO MORE; SCIENCE.
Capt. Flammer Orders Art of Detection Made Over.
Rule o' Thumb Abolished in Ferreting Out Crime.
Specialist to Handle Every Variety of Offender.

Scientific principles are hereafter to be used exclusively by Central Station detectives in ferreting out crime. "Gum-shoe" work is no longer to be tolerated. Orders to that effect were issued yesterday by Captain of Detectives Flammer. Their fulfillment is the first step to be taken by him in the reorganization of his department following the appointment of fifteen civil service men to his bureau. These orders will have a direct bearing upon the plans of the chief, which include the appointment of a "flying squadron," soon to be appointed. It is the ambition of Capt. Flammer to so raise the standard of his bureau that it will be recognized in police and court circles as the most competent and thorough in the United States.

Not only are the detectives to study scientific methods for the detection of crime, but they will be expected to put those methods to practical use, to the exclusion of those hitherto in vogue.

WILL SPECIALIZE. The personnel of the bureau is to be so divided that certain men will be detailed solely upon cases dealing with specified types of crime. These men must educate themselves to the highest possible point of efficiency in the category of crime coming within their special purview.

No fixed set of rules are to be followed. The first duty of the detective will be to assimilate all facts relative to the commission of the crime in question and then eliminate the unessential, leaving the main points to stand out by themselves. This, it may be mentioned, was the Golden Rule of Sherlock Holmes, death par excellence of fiction.

It has been hinted that Detective Jones, McNamara and Home will be given all murder, shooting and killing cases. They will work in a scientific circle around the more essential features, which usually enter into the commission of such crimes. Should an angle run to feature aside from their special line of work, these men will be taken up by other members of the bureau who are more familiar with that particular phase of criminality.

WALKING TEXT-BOOKS. As regards petty criminals, pickpockets and confidence men, it is estimated that Frank Carroll will be placed at the head of that work. He is known throughout the country as an expert on such offenders. The work and characteristics of these men is a study in itself. Carroll will be expected, while riding the city of this underworld, to familiarize himself with every possible fact regarding known criminals of that stripe, here and elsewhere.

Other members of the department who have shown a marked adaptability for special lines of other criminal work will be assigned to them by Capt. Flammer.

HERE'S A BADGER GAME. Motorcycle Cop Shoots at Robber of Ken Roost and Wings Him—A Groan and a Discovery. "My God! I've killed the man," exclaimed Motorcycle Officer Kincaid yesterday morning when a groan followed the discharge of his revolver. He had fired, he thought, over the head of an alleged chicken thief.

The exclamation of horror was shared by a dozen men and women who had collected in the rear of No. 514 Valverder street. For several months Boyle Heights residents have been annoyed by a chicken thief. On several occasions he used an auto to carry off the broilers. Late Tuesday night there was a great commotion in several houses along Valverder street. Reports were made to the Boyle Heights station, and Kincaid was sent to investigate. When he entered the rear of No. 514 Valverder street, several hens cackled in wild alarm. "We've got him dead to rights this time," he roared, exclaiming a neighbor. "Halt, or I'll shoot," commanded Kincaid, drawing his revolver. There was a rustling noise in the vicinity of the henhouse, and a shot rang out. It was followed by a groan, and then everything was still. The "man" proved to be a badger.

HERE'S GIRL FOR SOMEONE.

Woman Who Believes Herself Deserted Has Three Children, and Offers One for Adoption.

Fearing that she has been deserted by her husband, from whom she has not heard for six weeks and unable to provide means for the support of herself and three children, a woman who for obvious reasons asks that her name be not made public, has asked Deputy City Prosecutor Choate to assist her in finding a home for her oldest child, a girl 19 years of age. "She is a remarkably pretty child," said Choate yesterday. "And she is as bright and pleasing as she is attractive. The mother is willing that her daughter shall be adopted if a suitable home can be found for her. I will gladly put anybody desiring to adopt such a child in communication with the mother if he will communicate with me."

"According to the mother's story the husband went to Arizona about six weeks ago. He said he would write frequently, and in a few weeks would send for his family. The wife tells me she has never had a line from her husband."

Gov. and Mrs. Harmon of Ohio, As they stepped off a train from the North at Arcade Station last night.

Plain on Politics.

OHIO'S DISTINGUISHED GOVERNOR OUTSPOKEN.

THAT the so-called Progressive bosses in California deliberately stole the November ballot, thereby disfranchising 200,000 Taft Republicans, was the opinion expressed by Gov. Judson Harmon of Ohio last night at the Alexandria Hotel, a few minutes after his arrival in Los Angeles. Mrs. Harmon, their daughter, Mrs. A. N. Wright, and his staff accompany him.

The Governor and his party were met at the Arcade Station by a number of prominent Democrats and President C. Elliott Miller of the Ohio Society of Los Angeles. Dr. Alice Chaffee, secretary, and Kenyon Warren, president of the Ohio Society of Pasadena, and several old Ohio friends of the distinguished visitor. The Governor and members of his party were driven to the Alexandria in automobiles, and he was kept busy half an hour shaking hands with Democrats and other friends. The Governor selected a site for the Ohio exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco and is returning East.

VOLIVA PLAYS MODERN MINISTERS OF GOSPEL.

"IF BUT ONE minister here in Los Angeles will stand up in his pulpit and fearlessly proclaim that he has been called of God to preach God's word and God's teachings he will do more in four weeks toward closing your places of iniquity and bringing your people to Christianity than will all your present ministers in a lifetime. With this exhortation of modern ministers, and the assertion that the divine conception of Christianity has been lost, Wilbur Glenn Voliva, head of the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church in Zion, prefaced a bitter denunciation of present-day Christianity in an address before 2000 persons last night in Temple Auditorium.

"You have a beautiful city here," he declared, "but I am not blind to your iniquity. I would like to take every one of you card-playing, theater-going, dance-attending Christians and tangle you over the mouth of hell for twenty-four hours. You are not Christians, you people who do these things—you are a stench in the nostrils of God. I am here to tell a spade a spade, and I tell you that unless you repent and turn to God for forgiveness you are going to hell. It is the duty of your ministers to tell you the truth—they have no right to let you think you are saved, when, if measured by the Word of God, you would have to acknowledge that you have not even been converted."

ALL TOGETHER FOR ARMY POST.
Southern California Called to Support of Project.
Chamber of Commerce Asks a General Convention.
Big Military Base Probably Near Los Angeles.

Despite the hurried departure of Brig.-Gen. Weaver, assistant chief of staff of the army, who was summoned to Washington yesterday on urgent military business, the Chamber of Commerce directors took up the subject of a mobile army post and enthusiastically endorsed the project. The resolutions prepared by the Committee on Military and Naval Affairs set forth that fortifications at San Pedro would be of little avail without troops to defend them from rear attack. Possible invasion at various points on the coast line or through the mountain passes were also referred to.

In accordance with the recommendation of the committee and the advice of the directors, the local chamber will do all in its power to induce the next Congress to appropriate an adequate sum to maintain such an army post near Los Angeles, in addition to fortifying the harbor.

Unless Maj.-Gen. Wood, chief of staff of the army, is also called to Washington, the entire matter discussed by the chamber yesterday will be laid before him upon his arrival in this city.

EVERYONE FOR IT. The resolution calls as well for a general gathering of civic bodies of Southern California for the purpose of expressing the desires of Southern California for a mobile army post. "I have been trying to get in touch with Maj.-Gen. Wood all day," said Secretary Wiggins yesterday. "I got a telegram from Brig.-Gen. Weaver stating that he could not return here owing to a call to Washington. I am sure the slightest idea what it is about, but naturally suppose that, if he is wanted there, Maj.-Gen. Wood will be wanted as well. However, the resolutions can be sent to Washington and be presented to Congress through one of our representatives."

It is certain that the War Department will recommend that Congress appropriate $652,000 this winter for the purpose of building emplacements on the government site near Point Firmin. With two fourteen-inch guns to begin with and a battery of mortars in contemplation later on, the defense of the harbor can be instituted within the next eight or ten months. But the attitude taken by the commercial and also by military men who have gone over the situation is that there must also be troops to back up the garrison of the fortifications.

This fact is recognized by Maj.-Gen. Wood, who has already announced his intention to recommend that a mobile army post be established in Southern California.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The Committee on Military and Naval Affairs emphasized several important points yesterday before the Chamber of Commerce directors. One was that a brigade here would serve to repel foreign invasion by sea. In conjunction with the War Department, the committee recommended that the establishment of a mobile army post be continued. The report presented by the committee, "would be of great commercial advantage to Southern California by affording a new market for products and putting into circulation vast sums of money to be expended by officers and men."

Heartless Wretch Steals Large Ornate Plume From Woman's Hat While She Is Shopping.

Mrs. W. C. Nolan, No. 225 East Fifty-second street, reported to the police yesterday that while shopping in a Broadway store someone slipped up behind her and snipped from her picture hat an ostrich plume that was almost three feet in length and twenty inches wide. "The first that I knew that my feather was gone," said Mrs. Nolan, "was when a friend told me. I have not the slightest idea when and where the man took it."

DIGNITARIES IN A LONG LINE.
SPECTACULAR MARCH TODAY OF BISHOPS AND CLERGY.

Episcopal Churchmen Greeted by Bishop Johnson at Opening Sunday-school Convention—Eighth Department Council to Organize This Morning—Men's Banquet Tonight.

The spectacle of a dozen bishops and more than a hundred clergymen of the Episcopal church in procession, vested in white stoles, will usher in the first session of the Missionary Council at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral this morning at 10 o'clock. It is anticipated that this opening feature will be greeted by a vast congregation and that many more will gather at the cathedral to witness the march from the parish-house, which will take place a few minutes before 10. It is rarely the opportunity of people to witness so many church dignitaries in one body.

St. Paul's parish-house filled with bishops, clergymen and delegates, the Sunday-school convention, the first event in the great gathering of representatives of the Eighth Missionary Department, was called to order yesterday morning by Bishop W. F. Nichols of San Francisco.

GREETING DISTINGUISHED BODY.

Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson, bishop of Los Angeles, in his whole-hearted way, extended a cordial greeting to the distinguished body, which is controlled by the following Executive Committee: President, Bishop Nichols; vice-president, Rev. E. L. Parsons, Berkeley; treasurer, E. Goodwin, Sacramento; secretary, Rev. M. D. Wilson, Fruitvale; Rev. S. R. Coladay, Salt Lake; Rev. E. V. Shaylor, Seattle; Rev. E. L. Howe, Los Angeles.

The lobby of the parish-house was crowded throughout the day with persons anxious to greet the arriving delegates and bishops, all of whom came in during the day. The twelve bishops in attendance and the 100 clergymen make the gathering notable in many ways, and added to these are the many women delegates to the convention of the Woman's Auxiliary, which will hold its sessions on Friday. There are also many women who are interested in the Sunday-school work, and they had an important place on yesterday's programme.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the programme was the discussion of "Sunday-school Teaching and Service," a subject introduced in a lengthy paper by Miss C. L. Pledger of San Francisco. Miss Pledger is a strong champion of systematic study of the Bible if one is to acquire any valuable knowledge of its contents, devotional reading amounting merely to mental stimulus.

"My first approach to the Bible," she said, "was through a haphazard reading of the New Testament. This was the source of spiritual uplift, but of no actual religious instruction."

Her paper excited much interesting discussion on the floor of the convention, in which a large number of delegates participated. A conference on the subject, "Problems and Their Solution," was conducted by Rev. E. L. Parsons of Berkeley, in which the different subdivisions were treated as follows: "The Big Boy," Miss Eva Shoemaker of Upland; "The Older Girl," Miss Eva Mabley, Pasadena; "The Failure of the Sunday-school to Adequately Contribute its Strength to the Church," Rev. W. T. Renison, Stockton; "The Adult Bible Class," Lamb Doty, Los Angeles.

BOY AND GIRL PROBLEM.

There was warm endorsement of the now well-recognized plan of graded Sunday-schools, the same as graded day schools, and earnest discussion of ways and means for keeping the

WOMEN WITNESSES ARE UNDER CLOSE GUARD.

Mayor Alexander maintained silence yesterday regarding the Guy Eddie case and denied himself to all inquirers who do not belong to his own brand of political faith.

Deputy District Attorney McCartney declared that the case will take the usual course of procedure regardless of the efforts of the defendant's friends to have the entire matter dropped. Extra guards have been placed around Mrs. Alice Phelps and Mrs. Alma Jones, the two young women who have sworn to complaints against the moral censor, charging him with contributing to their delinquency.

That a desperate attempt will be made to lure the complaining witnesses out of the State is by no means improbable, declares detectives in the employ of the prosecution. Rogers made no secret of the fact that he has retained detectives to aid the defense.

The hearing will be resumed this morning. When it is finished, Judge Wilbur is expected to hold the defendant to answer, as Eddie's attorneys apparently do not intend to introduce any evidence at the preliminary.

As soon as the evidence is closed it is possible that the counsel for the defense may desire to introduce a little oratory to elaborate their contention that the charges preferred against Eddie are merely a part of a political "frame-up" intended to deprive the Good Government organization of one of its chief forces.

Eddie's attorneys take ground that the juvenile court law is unconstitutional and if Judge Wilbur holds the defendant to answer it is likely that habeas corpus proceedings will be instituted to bring the question of the juvenile court jurisdiction before the District Court of Appeal. Many lawyers believe that the act is invalid in that it places females over the code age of majority (18) in the custody of the juvenile court. Mrs. Phelps is nearly 21 and Mrs. Jones, the plaintiff, is 19. The argument of the defense is that even if Eddie did do the things he is charged with he is not asked Chesbro, "didn't you turn on Mr. Johnston and beat him over the head with an umbrella?"

"No, I did not," Mrs. Johnston replied. "I never carry an umbrella."

Much that was intimate came out in the testimony, forming the most serious accusation against Johnston. It needed the corroboration of Mrs. Johnston's family physician, Dr. J. F. Jenkins, who referred to a visit she made him in company with her husband previous to the latter's trip East at that time Mrs. Johnston was not in good health.

Johnston, according to Mrs. Johnston, was not only jealous but cruel. She testified that he had told her frequently if she ever left him he would kill her.

SUIT FOLLOWS VACATION.

A disagreement which appears slight on the surface, caused the separation of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hall and Alfred Hall's cross-complaint in Judge Cramer's court yesterday, charging Mrs. Hall with desertion. Hall owns the Hotel Alhambra and the Alhambra apartments, and is reported to be worth $150,000. The property settlement was not concluded yesterday. The trouble which caused the couple to part after a married life of nearly forty years, arose when Mrs. Hall asked her husband to rent a house at Long Beach. She wanted to go to the beach for her health. Hall gave her the money and informed his wife, if she went she need not return, as he intended to move from Alhambra to Los Angeles. Mrs. Hall went to the beach and after her vacation returned to Alhambra and found her husband had carried out his threat. That was two years ago.

Attorneys Bush and De Garmo worked all afternoon over the details of Hall's investments. The Hotel Alhambra is valued at $140,000, and the Alhambra apartments at $10,000.

MANY WIDOWS APPLY.

SEEK SHARE IN BEQUEST.

Widows with children, who assert they are deserving, have written to the Probate Court, seeking to share in the $5000 bequest in the purported will of William Brady, mailed from the canal zone last week. The money was left for the use of white widows who have more than one child under 15 years of age. The widows reside in all parts of the State, and each hopes she will be one of the fortunate to share in the bequest.

Public Administrator Bryson, who has Brady's $53,000 estate in charge, says he is inclined to look on the will as fictitious. It was made at Raton, N. M., in 1903, and after bequest to charity leaves the estate to Russell Bates Brady, a letter he has received by the Probate Court from Joseph Brackett of Denver, who writes that Russell Bates Brackett is his nephew, and was killed in a railroad accident at Las Vegas, leaving a widow and three children. He does not know the widow is, but believes she is in the State. Brady was a professor and died in this city. He apparently left no will and for months no trace of his heirs could be found.

COURT IS PEEVISH.

MOTHER CRIES FOR CHILDREN.

A puzzling case has been presented to Judge Wilbur. It involves a widow and five children, who were taken into the juvenile court yesterday because of their desertion of their mother. The usual procedure would be to declare the children "dependent," but the mother, Mrs. Parker, does not want to part with them. Which action was suggested she wept bitterly. The court continued the case one week, remarking it would be a worthy matter for a pension under a widow's pension act.

Mrs. Parker's husband died September 4, last, just before the birth of the fifth child. She was left destitute. The ages of the children range from three weeks to 8 years.

ONES NOT LEGAL.

ONE HUSBAND TOO MANY.

Frank J. Whithman, a patrolman, asked the divorce court yesterday to annul his marriage to Alice Vach Whithman on the ground that at the time of the ceremony at Santa Ana, January 23, 1903, she had a husband living from whom she had not obtained the final decree of divorce. Whithman discovered that his marriage was not legal. When Mrs. Whithman applied for letters of administration on the $10,000 estate of her first husband, he was previously to this they had separated. Attorney Neen filed the complaint for annulment yesterday.

BRISTLES WITH GALE.

KEATING DIVORCE SUIT.

The divorce suit of Helen Keating Johnston, brought with sensational Johnstone's court yesterday. Further sensational are promised by the attorneys of the husband, William Johnston, when the case is resumed today. Numerous episodes were called to the attention of the judge, young woman which indicated that she had been receiving the attentions of other men, but she denied these, sometimes with passion and again with scorn.

As a daughter of the late illustrious Andrew J. Keating, she received $60,000 as her share of the estate. She married Johnston, a drug clerk, at Pasadena in July, 1904. Evidently her married life was not happy, as Mrs. Johnston sued for divorce and was granted a decree by Judge Monroe. Johnston petitioned to have the case reopened on the ground that while he was absent in the East Mrs. Johnston took advantage of her freedom. He demanded an opportunity to defend himself against his wife's charges.

Mrs. Johnston testified yesterday that they lived on money she borrowed in connection with her share of her father's estate. Johnston was jealous, she declared, and would not let her go out, even obliging to her going with certain girl friends. Mrs. May Amatus of Napa, a friend, testified that on one occasion she went shopping with Mrs. Johnston. Suddenly the latter asked what time it was. On their return home Johnston inquired particularly where she had been at a certain house where she had a certain boy.

"I was at Hamburger's at 4 o'clock," replied Mrs. Johnston. His comment to this was according to Mrs. Amatus, "you lie."

Pointed questions were asked Mrs. Johnston by Attorney Keating. He wanted to know if she had not been found dining at a downtown cafe with another man and if Johnston whipped her about. Mrs. Johnston denied was made. Chesbro inquired if on another occasion she had not gone with a man with whom she was intercepted by Johnston and the escort thrashed. This also was denied.

"On that night of that trip,"

FINE RACES ON OPENING DAY.

Harness Horses Do Great Work at Exposition Park.

Speedy Homer Mac Shows Two Miles in 3:08.

Events Exciting Although Won in Straight Heats.

BY GREGG OLIVER.

Delightful weather, fast time and close finishes featured the first day's racing of the Los Angeles Harness Association at Exposition Park yesterday and while the attendance was really not what the programme warranted, the 1900 or more persons present saw some of the best harness racing ever shown in this end of the State.

When harness horses make miles in 3:08 and 3:09, and runners do four furlongs in 48 3-4 with catch-weight riders on their backs, the card as a whole is worth looking at. In addition to these there was a one mile dash of a two-team chariot race, a few little wild West stunts and a parade of a dozen or more beautiful saddle horses.

One prominent thing in connection with the meet that is worthy of mention was the clear-out work of starter McNair. He is the only real starter of harness races that I ever saw here in two years' experience. He fired driver J. W. Zibbell $6 for delaying the first race; threatened to fine another driver $10 if he did not get off the track with a horse and make the entire bunch of drivers behave in the way of starting.

As a result there were few false starts and the long card of four regular events were shown along in rapid fire order. It takes some class to get three in five races and a two in three event for amateur drivers settled in a little more than three hours, when you have a chariot race, some cowboy sports, a sprint for the runners and a saddle horse parade thrown in for good measure. McNair did all this all right and his quick action alone would do much to make the meet a success.

Harness sport here in the past has been denuded by false starts but with a starter who fires like McNair, puts them on their own protection after about three breaks, the racing should become popular again.

While all the events were won in straight heats, this does not signify that the heats were one-sided for

WOLGAST BEAT TEDDY MALONEY.

SIX TAME ROUNDS FOUGHT AT PHILADELPHIA.

Lightweight Champion Allowed the Philadelphia Boy to Hit Him Early and Often in the Hope of Getting Him Close Enough to Hand Him the Knock-out Blow.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the Olympia Athletic Club tonight Ad Wolgast bested Teddy Maloney in a six-round affair, being declared the winner on points. It was one of the tamest fights ever seen at the Olympia, and there was little enthusiasm around the ring.

In the early part of the fight Wolgast hit Maloney as he wanted to and the Philadelphia boy could do nothing to stop him. Often Wolgast would let Maloney hit him and smile back at the youngster after he did it. He tried his best to tease Teddy into leads with the idea of getting Maloney close enough to land a knockout punch. But Teddy was wary at all times and kept out of the way.

Once Wolgast thought that he had Teddy within reaching distance and he sent a vicious swing at his head. The blow missed by a foot and the champion fell floundering on the floor from the force of his own blow. Maloney landed a blow on the head after him, forcing Maloney from one side of the ring to the other and catching him in rallies on the ropes or in the center.

In these exchanges Wolgast landed many vicious body blows, which would have told against Maloney in a long fight, but which did not appear to have any particular effect on him except to make him still more wary of exchanging blows at close quarters with the visitor.

BEAVERS WIN FROM ANGELS IN NINTH.

Well-played Game Remains in Doubt Until Last Man Is Down—Perritt, Gregg and Koestner All in Good Form—Fitzgerald Starts the Winning Rally With Double—Doane and Daley Cut Off Runs.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

WALTER McCREDIE'S Oregon-raised, apple-eyed athlete put one over on us yesterday, moving up on an even footing with the Angels for the series with a 5 to 2 victory.

It was a close and chaste game, free from any uncouth demonstrations with the bat and featured by much fast and polished fielding. For eight innings it was a neck and neck battle, with "Handsome Phil" Perritt, Dave Gregg and Elmer Koestner pitching good ball and holding the batters within reasonable bounds. Forlan was pocketed in the ninth, a single off Fitzgerald, Howley's single off Perritt's shapely left leg and a dropped fly ball by Daley giving them the deciding ace. Daley's muff was excusable. The fly was in short right center, and Tommy had to travel half way across the lot to get under it. Tommy saved himself from a technical error by regaining the ball in time to force Howley at second, but this did not prevent the speedy Fitzgerald from flitting over the plate with the winning run.

Perritt was found for eight hits, but the Beavers were able to bunch them with effect in the third and ninth only. Three of these were clustered in the third, and the "Fol" picked off seven hostile batters at the plate.

Dave Gregg, Veau's little brother, who is supposed to shine only by a reflected glory, gave an excellent account of himself. One hit bracketed with a passed ball, a stolen base and a bad throw, gave the Angels a run in the second. Los Angeles scored its next run in the sixth, tying the count. Gregg then let go in favor of Koestner. The Angels threw a score into Koestner in the ninth, but that was all. Of the seven hits gathered by the local stickmen, five were made off Gregg.

DALEY'S STELLAR STUNT.

Doane and Daley each snuffed out a budding run by stellar defensive work. In the fourth with Moore on third as the result of his own single and a double by Page, Driscoll drove a long fly to Doane in center. Moore was off like a streak for the plate the instant the ball touched Doane's glove. Charley's middle name is "Speed" and he can go from third to the plate in about three jumps. By

COSTLY ERRORS WIN FOR SOX.

Boston Champions of World This Year.

Takes Ten Innings of Thrills to Decide.

Mathewson Superb—Bedient Is Luckier.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BOSTON, Oct. 16.—Total attendance for the series of eight games, 352,037.

The total receipts, $490,323.

Each club's share, $147,571.69.

The National Commission's share, $49,821.30.

Total players' share, derived from the first four games only, was $147,471.69. Of this the Boston players, as winners, shared 60 per cent., or $88,483.01.

The New York players, losers, shared $58,988.69.

Each Red Sox player, of whom twenty-two were eligible, received $4024.68.

Each Giant player, of whom twenty-three were eligible, received $2866.46.

The figures in every case are greater than for any previous world series.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BOSTON, Oct. 16.—The Boston Red Sox, pennant winners of the American League, are the world's champions of 1912. Defeating the New York Nationalists today, 2 to 1 in ten innings they captured their fourth victory of the world's series and carried off the premier honors in baseball.

The Giants won three games of the series that were played before more than a quarter of a million people and one contest was a tie. Today was a game of excitement and changing emotions for the 17,000 spectators who went to Fenway park to see the teams meet in the deciding contest. Not until twilight had fallen on the tenth inning did Red Stockings Ed Yerkes flash over the plate with the winning run.

VETERAN PERSUADE STRIPPLING.

Nine innings of a pitching duel between the master boxman of the Giants, Christy Mathewson, and the strippling Bedient and "Smoky" Joe Wood for the Red Sox found the two contenders for championship honors with a tally each.

Into the tenth inning the contest went, and the Giants chilled the hopes of the Boston crowd by scoring a run on a double into the bleachers by Murray, and a hit by Markie in center, which Speaker fumbled.

Engle led off for the Red Sox in the last half of the tenth. He had gone to bat for Joe Wood, and there was a groan when the Red Sox pinch hitter sent up a towering fly to left center.

SNODGRASS FAILE.

Snodgrass moved over toward the bleachers and waited for the ball to drop. He muffed it, and before the ball was recovered, Engle was on second base. No one out, and the crowd was in a frenzy of joy.

Hooper tried to sacrifice, but Mathewson felled him, and the best the Red Sox right gardener could do was a fly to Snodgrass.

The Giant pitcher tried to work the corners of the plate for Yerkes, but Yerkes waited him out, and walked on four balls.

With Engle on second and Yerkes on first, Tris Speaker came up. The first ball pitched was a curve, and inside, and Speaker popped up a high foul. Meyers, Markie and Mathewson went after it, but it fell safe between them. New York's last chance to stop the Boston panned with the failure to get that foul ball.

SPEAKER SCORES ENGLE.

Mathewson started a high fast one and Speaker met it fairly. On a line over Doyle's head the ball was driven, and Engle rushed over the plate with the tying run. On the throw in Yerkes went to third and Speaker dashed on to second.

The New York infield drew in, and Lewis purposely was passed so that a runner could be forced at the plate on an infield ground. Then came the finish. Gardner, with three balls and one strike on him, smashed a long fly to Devore. Yerkes set himself at third, and dashed for home when the ball dropped in Devore's hands.

RACE FOR PLATE.

Merers crouched at the plate to take the throw he expected from Devore. Instantly he had caught it, Devore whipped the ball homeward. On came the flying Yerkes—on came the ball.

Mathewson, who saw that the throw of the little left fielder would be wide, threw up his hands and Meyers turned away without trying to touch the ball. Yerkes did not know the throw was wide, however, and he plunged and forced on and slid over the plate in a cloud of dust, with the run that won the world's championship for the Red Sox.

MCGRAW GAME LOSER.

Manager McGraw elbowed his way through the throng to the Red Sox clubhouse beneath the stand, where

HOW SNODGRASS COST GIANTS CHAMPIONSHIP.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—[Special Dispatch.] The name of Fred Snodgrass on the lips of the baseball world tonight, for almost an hour after he gave the championship of the world to the Boston Red Sox after the great Christy Mathewson had taken the measure of both Hugh Bedient and Joe Wood in the bitterest and hardest-fought ten-inning game that was ever contested on any diamond. The Red Sox were outfielded, outbatted and outplayed while their twiflers were outpitched in the eighth and deciding struggle this afternoon. A weird twist in the luck of the game gave the poorer team the eagerly-sought pennant. The score was 2 to 1.

When Red Murray and Fred Merkle collaborated on a run with a double and a single off Joe Wood in the tenth inning, breaking a tie which had existed since the seventh, the championship appeared to be won by the Giants. With nothing but a forlorn hope to spur him on, Jake Stahl sent Engle to bat for Wood in the last of the tenth. Engle raised a long high fly to center, which Snodgrass got under in plenty of time to make an easy catch, but the ball popped out of his hands for the New York's first error in the series. Engle got to second on the muff and was nearly doubled at the midway when Snodgrass tried to make up for his previous lapse by catching Hooper's drive in splendid fashion. For a moment Matty wavered and passed Terkes.

Fate toyed with the New York team once more, as if to give the Giants another chance. Speaker popped up the first ball pitched for a foul three feet from first base. It was an easy catch for Merkle, but his fingers came rushing up the line and frightened Fred off. The fans were yelling so madly at the time that neither player could hear Matty's frantic cries for Merkle to take the ball. It fell to the ground and the most golden opportunity was lost.

VERNON BEATS SENATORS; OAKS LOSE TO WHALES.

Spider Baum Pitched Such a Star Game for Six Innings that Hap Hogan Took Him Out to Save Him for Future Use—Oakland-San Francisco Game Went to Ten Innings.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 16.—[Special Dispatch.] Spider Baum, returned to his home town today and greeted old team-mates with the most puzzling assortment of curves they have faced this season, and with the able assistance of Walter Carlisle, the fence-buster, who whanged out two home runs, got away with a nice 9-to-2 victory.

In the six innings he officiated Baum held the Senators to two hits. He looked so good that Hap Hogan decided to preserve him for future use and sent Dolly Gray in to finish the game in the seventh.

The Tigers hit and ran bases in a manner that made the Sacramento battery look petrified.

The second ball that Gilligan pitched in the game was whaled out of the lot by Carlisle.

Bayless grabbed a single after Kane went to second and jogged home on an infield out and Hooper's hit to right. Kane jarred Gilligan with a double to left at the opening of the third frame and stole third.

Bayless drew a pass and thieved second. Brashers' fly to Shinn gave Kane a chance to sneak in and Bayless to negotiate third, from which position he scored on a wild pitch. It was in the fourth Carlisle entered with measured stride and committed the crime.

Litchi cracked a hit to center and ambled to second on a wild pitch. McDonald and Brown died natural deaths, but Baum uncorked and led right-handing Litchi home.

Eater Carlisle, exit the ball via right field fence.

Baum and Carlisle walked. The Tigers dropped two more runs in the basket in the fifth and ninth by an opportune hit and by fast base running.

Kane, in the ninth, scored all the way from first on an infield out. Van Buren's toss to catch him at third going into the grand stand. The two Solon runs arrived in the fifth and eighth.

A pass to Orr, Cheek's single and an infield out permitted the first, and Speaker's boot off Shinn's chase and Carlisle's mauling of a drive by Swain brought the others.

SAN FRANCISCO.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—[Special Dispatch.] The Seals applied the harpoon to the Oakland brigade again this afternoon after ten innings of strife.

The game did not look good at the outset. Oakland started off with a two-run lead and Lefty Pernell was slanting over the same sort of batters which he used for Detroit back in the big bush.

The fans did not concede the Seals much of a chance of doing any good for themselves. But were wrong. Oakland started in the second with the able assistance of Mr. Coy, who gave the ball a ride over the right field fence. This was a mighty wallop and should have gone for a homer on any man's lot.

The next round brought another Oaklander over. Pernell hit to right field and got away with a steal. Schmidt pegged the ball wide, trying to nail the Oakland pitcher who pulled up at third. Leard walked and Abbott sent an infield grounder down the line.

While they were handling this one and forcing Leard at second, along came Pernell and Oakland was riding easy.

The Oaks booted it away in the fifth with a nice victory in sight. Zimmerman laid the ball down to Cook who pegged it wide at first and the run was safe. Next came Corban with a bunt which went down to stealing. He did a Cook, only he made it easier, leaving the ball so wide that it hit on the other side of the bench and advanced both runners a peg.

It was all up to Bill Yoba, but he could not give them anything better than a ground order down to first on which the pitcher could not advance.

But McCardie started a slow one to Cook. The doctor fished this all right, but had to make the play at first base. Zimmerman skipped right along to the plate and tied up the score.

The rest was easy enough. The Oaks were unable to put one across in their half of the ninth, but the Seals had a come-back ready in their half of the tenth. Wuffli lost a lingering one down to short and took second when Cook heaved it away again. Mundorf bunted him along to third and Zimmerman swung with a well-placed wallop to center. Wuffli arrived with the one that counted most.

IN JAIL TILL WIFE LEAVES.

After frightened Sister Hall and Mother-in-Law, Is Charge.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

BALT LARK, Oct. 16.—(By direct wire.) William Mack is in the County Jail to be held there until his wife, Marjorie Ransom, and her mother, whose name is Edith Burnett, can get out of town for New York. He was arrested at 11:30 o'clock this morning upon sworn complaint of his mother-in-law that he had threatened to kill her.

Mrs. Mack is in her room at the Semish Hotel, and her mother says they would leave tonight for the East if her daughter were able to travel.

Mrs. Mack is suffering from nervous shock and is under the attention of a physician. She and her mother hope to be able to leave tomorrow for New York. Mrs. Mack's mother declares that her daughter has been too ill to discuss divorce proceedings.

"I saw Mr. Mack on the street when I thought he was being held in jail, and I was terribly frightened," said Mrs. Ransom. "He looked like a wild man. The expression in his eyes was terrifying, and I hid in the bottom of the automobile so he couldn't see me, for he had made so many threats to kill me. I trembled with fear."

Officer Dalton declared that the mother did not seem unruly or in an excitable condition when he arrested her last night.

RUSH PLANS FOR BIG BIRDMAN MEET HERE.

A REQUEST for a sanction of the next International Aviation meet in Los Angeles was filed yesterday with the contest committee of the Aero Club of America in New York. Ample assurances were given that it would have sufficient financial backing and that it would be held on an international basis.

Six days of flying and an equal number of "tuning days," are provided in the plans for the meet, which will be held on December 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19. The "tuning days," which come in between the 14th and Christmas Day are to make it impossible for any aviator who has trouble to fail to prepare to appear again unless he meets with a total wreck. Dominguez Park, at which the meet will be held in line with the three former international meets, will have an improved field and new facilities for caring for the crowds. Ten aviators of national reputation have signed up, and Manager Will Freese expects to come to an agreement with Glenn L. Martin of Santa Ana, today and with W. H. Picken, the manager of Henchey, Kearns and Fish, by Sunday, when Picken will be in Los Angeles again.

The Caudron monoplane, which is the smallest successful flying machine made, and the Deperdussin, which is considered the finest machine manufactured in France, will make their first western appearance. A big passenger-carrying dirigible is another novelty. A novel program of the meet is to have the most belovables will take aviation out of the circus class is promised, and at least five monoplanes and eight biplanes will be on the entry list.

Cardinal Victory.

STANFORD WINS GREAT GAME FROM WARATAHS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 16.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Stanford, 13; Australians, 13.

In the most thrilling Rugby game ever played on the Coast, Stanford defeated the All-Australia team, 13 to 13, in a game that was a real battle.

Rugby fifteen on Stanford field this afternoon. The triumph was remarkable in that the Cardinal fifteen was made up almost entirely of men who, at the present time, are classified as second and even third-team men.

Coch Presley put practically a second team on to the field, as he wanted to save the first team; men for the game with U.S.C. at Los Angeles Saturday. The team put on a better game than the first team Australians and, in fact, put up by far the best game a Stanford team has played, except the games with California, for years.

The men who formed the Cardinal team were: Front rank—Declan, of Los Angeles; "Stork" of Pasadena; Single, middle rank—Partidge, Smith, Lock, Lull, of Los Angeles; backways—Clever of Pasadena; Darsie, half-back—Erb; five—Relling and Andrews, the former, Pomona College; half-back—Coch; three—Thoburn, wings—Urban and Noble; full-back—B. Erb.

Capt. Cass, Harrison, Schapp, Kern, Hooton, Brown, Frank, Gard and other variety men were on the side lines. Cass and Kern went in near the end of the game.

Horse Races.

each one was what might be called a driving finish. When such a speeder as Homer Mac is forced to step two heats in 2:04 and do a first half in 1:03 3/4, one can guess there is some flying.

THE FEATURE EVENT.

The third event on the card, which was the 2:30 pace, was the feature of the day, for the best time was made in it, 2:08, 2:11 and 2:03.

The starters were Homer Mac, Dan Logan and Lech Lomond, given for positions as named. Joe McGregor and Bonney were declared the issue by scratching out. Homer Mac was picked by the wise ones to win and he made good by taking three straight heats.

Having the pole he sailed away about his business without loss of time, closely pressed by Dan Logan and Lech Lomond. Poor Audubon, a beautiful black horse who moves like a piece of well-oiled machinery when he gets into action, broke just after the start and could not be brought down until he had gone more than a sixteenth of a mile. This put him hopelessly out of the heat and he finished a bad last.

Dan Logan kept right up to Homer Mac, but he was there at the end of the race. Lech Lomond, who had fallen back after passing the quarter, made up on the back stretch and finished a close third. Homer Mac was urged in 2:08, which is certainly a very fast mile for this time of the year by a Coast campaigner.

The second and third heats were almost repetitions of the first, except that Lech Lomond finished second in the last heat while Dan Logan began to tire, finishing third in the second heat and fourth in the third.

SAN FELIPE SHINES.

In the 2:14 trot San Felipe showed his class, taking three straight, Expedito, Mabel Van and Escabado, each taking second in three different heats. Of the eight entries, Phyllis Wyna and Della Lou scratched out and Mabel was put in as an added starter.

Lech Lomond was scratched in the first heat and after Kenneth C was withdrawn, Mabel was fourth in the first heat and fifth in the second and then she was taken out.

These two were apparently not ready for the class shown by San Felipe. In fact many spectators thought it seemed that the winner had a little in reserve.

The handsome little Redem by Directum II led his field of six all the way and practically was never headed. He set the pace at 2:12 1/2 and 2:14 1/2, and although Dan Mathews and Bonney pressed him at times, they could not overtake him and he was satisfied with second and third places in both heats. Merry Widow and Dr. McGowan were fourth and fifth places in the three heats. Monica McKinney was distanced in the first heat and Bonnie Princess, George T. Helms, Director and Charles F. declined the issue. It was in the first heat that Driver W. Zibbell was fined $5 for delaying time race.

Annexa, from the San Diego Club, proved to be the winner in the 2:17 class pace with amateur drivers, and she won two straight heats in 2:13 1/2 and 2:14. Sam Watkins's John S. was second and Lady Silverthorn was third in the first heat. Charles great burst of speed in the stretch in the second heat. Annexa and John S. really made a hot race, but they were lapped together almost all the way.

Jake Vogt finished first with his red-jacketed team in the chariot race, beating Stanley by daylight. This event was not really as interesting to

"I can't say that I am glad, Jake, but one of the teams had to win; it was to be the Red Sox and congratulations are in order," said Manager McGraw addressing Stahl.

A spectator addressed an insulting remark to McGraw as he walked across the diamond and blows were passed, but no damage was done.

The total paid attendance at today's game was 1,512, while the total receipts were $10,500, of which each club received $12,735 and the National Commission $10,000.

IN THE BIG PLAY-WORLD

By JAMES JOHNSON.

Play Theater, who has been ailing since Keith's Theater in Toledo, has just received a benefit performance. His has been in a hospital for some weeks, recovering from an appendicitis operation.

Johnny Ayres, one-time Burbank leading man, last month married Miss Anne Frank of Oakland.

May Irwin announces in all seriousness that when her proposed New York Theater is erected it will be equipped in certain portions of the orchestra circle, with genuine rocking chairs that will really rock.

Miss Selwyn's new play is entitled "Coming Home to Roost." Harris & Selwyn will produce it at the Hollis Street Theater in Boston.

Thomas Gray is writing a baseball act for the joint use of Rube Waddell and Bloomer Seelye, in vanderbilt, this winter.

Johnnie de Angelo is a new recruit to the Orpheum circuit.

Miss Donlin, once a baseball hero, and now the husband of Mabel Hite, is to back up with Tom Lewis, of "The Yankee Prince," in something far grander.

"It's a Bear" is now not only figured speech, but fact, for New York vanderbilt includes a trained bear that rags intracingly.

Mrs. Fiske, in "The High Road," by Edward Sheldon, will appear at Powers's theater, Chicago, October 22.

"Wilder & Linder's 'The Orpheus'" will have its premier performance at the Colonial Theater, Cleveland, next Monday night.

"Ready Money" seems to be so successful that it is now imitated. "Ready Money" has been born in Rochester.

Francis Starr now wishes to play Juliet.

Madge Leeming is playing a lights part in a revue in Berlin. Oh, yes, Madge is still on earth.

Lewis Walker dared to put on Shakespeare's "Henry" in New York. Lewis Walker has now taken off "Henry V" and has gone to work.

Words have not merely music and color, but thought and passion and spirituality are theirs also, are theirs alone. Read these words that follow. They are from the long speech John Mason delivers in "The Atlantic" every night at the Garrick Theater, New York. These, too, are some of the words that obliged Paris to revise its judgment and finally give high rating to Henry Bernstein as a play-writer as well as a play-maker.

"One morning I arrived at the office before anyone else. The letters were on the table. My attention was attracted by a large envelope. I recognized the writing. It was from a client who was sending me money to invest. I was alone. I was near the table—a letter, containing a theft was discovered almost immediately, and the search for the culprit began while I was away on leave by Jacqueline's sick-bed. The day after my return to the office, M. Dalbeau called me in. 'Mertal, I want you,' he said. 'I want into his room and shut the door. He was sitting at his desk. He looked at me quietly, and then he said, 'Mertal, I've just seen the Inspector of Police. He has paid some debts in the last few days, and settled some rather large bills. You did it with stolen money. You stole from me a letter, containing four thousand francs. I made no reply, only said to myself, They can't arrest me. I'll kill myself, like my father.' He continued, 'I'm not going to have you arrested. I'll simply dismiss you. I am sorry for your wife and your little son. As I did not move, he added: 'Your crime is particularly base, because you know how hard it is for me to gain my living. That I am very poor. Now go.' I found myself in the street, bewildered. Why didn't this man have me arrested? Then suddenly one thought dominated me to the exclusion of all else. I must pay back those four thousand francs. It was in this rudimentary form that the first germ of principle was born in me. We went to Paris. There I learned the difference between poverty and misery. Oh! There is a difference. I wouldn't wish my worst enemy those first months in Paris. What struggles! I worked on the quays, and chose after a vain day's search for work—I was going back to my wretched little room without a sou in my pocket—it was horrible! But I knew I should be greeted with a smile, and this poor man smile in the little starved face hurt me in advance—I was a lady coming towards me between two young girls, their carriage was following them, they were pretty and laughed as they talked. I went straight to meet them without any definite plan, and my heart beat so fast I almost choked me. As soon as I was close to them, I thrust out my hat suddenly and turned my head away. I heard an exclamation, 'I was conscious they at once, that I searched in their purse—it seemed Florence Stone.

A shining example of the ups and downs of luck. Miss Stone waited through arduous years for just such a chance as was given her in Walter's "The Feathers," in Chicago. An fame was within her grasp serious illness compelled her to relinquish her role. Would she find another such? Didn't seem likely. Armstrong's "The Escape," with a colored part for a woman, Miss Catherine Calvert III and Miss Letta Jewell unable to reach Los Angeles in time. Yesterday the part became Florence Stone's.

to take a century! At last a charming voice said: 'There, Mersal!' and something heavy fell into the hat. I rushed away without even saying 'thank you.' It was five francs. 'The Atlantic.' Act III.

ENTERTAINS GADSKI.
Gannet Club Chalks Up Red Letter Day on Its Calendar—The Great Stage Enthusiast Audience.

The Gannet Club entertained Mrs. Gadski last evening at the clubhouse on South Hope street. It was one of those charming events in the life of this club that has welcomed many of the greatest stars in the world of the old world.

The madame sang "Dich Theure Halle," and was stormed with appreciation. The madame's charming young daughter, was presented to the audience and given an enthusiastic welcome.

In the absence of President Fred Blanchard at Panama, Mr. Behrmer acted as toastmaster of the banquet table and he related amusing and interesting incidents from his recent European trip and sojourn among the artists of the old world.

Mr. Juan de la Cruz sang "Pagliacchi-prologue," and as an encore gave "Der Aers" (Rustenstein.) Miss Grace Freesby was his accompanist.

Mrs. L. J. Selby, president of the Dominant Club, of which Mrs. Gadski is a member, outlined the objects and work of this club. She offered as a toast, to which all Gannets drank heartily, the sentiment: "Music, the only art of heaven come down to earth, the only art of earth we take to heaven."

Homer Grann, whom all Gannets love, charmed his audience on the piano and received the personal thanks of Mrs. Gadski.

A delightful banquet was enjoyed and the meeting adjourned with the usual words of appreciation from Charles Lummis to the guests and the great Mrs. Gadski in particular.
